

WHAT DETERMINES YOUR MOVEMENT?

Let us read the following passage and reflect:

Acts 1:4-8 ⁴ While he was with them, he commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the Father's promise. Which, he said, you have heard me speak about; ⁵ for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit in a few days. ⁶ So when they had come together, they asked him, Lord, are you restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time? ⁷ He said to them, It is not for you to know times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come on you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

SEE:

What did Jesus' command his followers?

How did his followers react?

What was the question with which they responded to the message they heard?

JUDGE:

What was Jesus' greatest concern before he ascended?

What was the disciples' greatest concern?

Why were the disciples concerned about the time for restoring the kingdom to Israel?

ACT:

Where is your focus: on what God is going to do or on what you are supposed to do?

Have you received the Holy Spirit? Do you have any sign of it?

Have you witnessed God's work in your life, family, and community?
