PASSOVER DINNER MANUAL 2026

GUIDE FOR THOSE LEADING THE PASSOVER DINNER

- The person in charge must have one main characteristic:
  - That he has given his life to the Lord Jesus Christ (conversion and baptism) and lives committed to Him.
- Everyone—children and adults alike—should sit at the same table to facilitate interaction and to pass on to the next generation who Jesus Christ is, the freedom we obtain through Him, and salvation. Therefore, it is recommended that the number of participants not exceed the capacity of the table where the food will be served.

PREPARING THE HOUSE

- Make the necessary adjustments to ensure people are comfortable.
- A place at the table should be prepared for each participant.

SHARING THE FOOD

- The host will say an opening prayer.
- While the food is being served to the participants, the explanation of the celebration begins.

**The host should have read the relevant explanation regarding the Passover celebration in the days prior in order to be able to easily communicate and answer questions from the participants.*

EXPLANATION OF THE CELEBRATION

06

Let's look at some history: God created man and woman with a perfect design, which included the capacity to choose, but unfortunately, they chose to turn away from God and, as a consequence, became enslaved to the flesh, the world, and Satan. In this condition, the only thing that awaited them was death, for the law says, "The wages of sin is death." And under these conditions, many generations passed. God then set in motion a "plan of liberation." This plan consisted of sending Jesus Christ, his only son, to bring humanity back to communion with God the Father and thus restore them to life.

Easter is a ceremony designed to bring to mind God's faithfulness and love manifested in freeing all of humanity from eternal death.

At CDA we call it "Celebration of Freedom." It consists of celebrating the salvation we have received through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross (The Lamb of God), remembering His death, His resurrection, and with it, the freedom and promises to which we have access through the grace and love of our Heavenly Father (abundance, delight, health, and prosperity).

Therefore, in each family, in an atmosphere of love, warmth, and joy, this important celebration takes place under the guidance of the head of the household. We celebrate this meal so that everyone may understand the true meaning of Passover, with the establishment of the Lord's Supper, thus revealing that with Christ the divine plan of liberation is fulfilled.

EXPLANATION OF THE ELEMENTS

While the participants are eating, the host will explain the meaning of all the items placed on the table and, at the same time, ask each person to read the corresponding Bible passage for each item.

EXPLANATION OF THE OFFERING OF FIRSTFRUITS

The host will explain the importance of developing a life of gratitude to God for all that we have received, expressing it in our lifestyle, in what our hands produce, and giving the first of our "harvest," following the model taught by Jesus Christ, who is the firstfruits of our Father God, and thus obeying his command.

Proverbs 3:9-10

"Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled to overflowing, and your vats will brim over with new wine."

Romans 11:16

"If the first portion is holy, so is the whole batch; if the root is holy, so are the branches."

The host will inform them that the offering of first fruits will be given at the United Resurrection Worship.

TIME OF PRAISE AND WORSHIP

With your whole family, begin to have a time of worship and praise, giving thanks and celebrating the victory and triumph of Jesus Christ on the cross and therefore, declaring our freedom in Him. Celebrate the Lord's Supper as a family.

The celebration can end with games or any activity that promotes unity.
